109 retail investors pitch for Gujarat NRE Coke revival

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
 Kolkata, January 22

AS MANY AS 109 retail investors have come together to revive the debt-ridden Gujarat NRE Coke which is facing liquidation, an official said on Wednesday.

The revival plan, which has been submitted by the retail investors who hold less than one per cent stake in the company, will be placed in a meeting for approval of creditors, FCCB holders and shareholders, he said. The meeting is slated to be held on February 21.

"The February 21 meeting has been convened as per direction of the Kolkata bench of the National Company Law Tribunal to discuss and decide on the resolution plan proposed by the 109 shareholders who are also employees of the company.

"The meeting will seek approval of creditors, CCB holders and shareholders," said the official liquidator of Gujarat NRE Coke, Sumit Binani.

There are rumours that the erstwhile promoter of the company, Arun Jagatramka, has been actively backing the plan. Asked about this, Jagatramka said, "I am not a party to these proceedings and it will not be proper for me to comment on this matter. If somebody is trying to revive the company, it is good for 1,100 employees," he said.

In October last year, a bench of NCLAT headed by chairperson Justice SJ Mukhopadhyaya did not allow Jagatramka to negotiate with the creditors of the metallurgical coke producer as he was declared ineligible to be a resolution applicant of the company under the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code.
